

Craig Bialorucki
Head Coach — OBX Swim Club

Craig began his tenure as Head Coach of the Outer Banks Swim Club in the spring of 2006. He has been involved in competitive swimming since beginning to compete at the age of 5. Craig competed with Old Dominion Aquatic Club in Virginia for ten years and also lettered in swimming and soccer in high school. His teaching background includes ten years of experience as a Swim America Swim School instructor, working with children ages 2-18 on the basic stroke techniques of competitive swimming.

Craig began his coaching career with Old Dominion Aquatic Club, where he worked for two years in the age group program, prior to relocating to the Outer Banks of North Carolina. He believes that with hard work, dedication, experience, and the desire to improve: participants in the sport of swimming can achieve their goals.
